

Brief Bio WDMS 2024– Dr Susan George

Dr Susan George is currently Program Director of Internal Medicine Residency at Saint Vincent Hospital, Worcester, MA and Professor of Medicine at the UMass Chan Medical School. She completed her medical school at the National University of Singapore and received her membership at the Royal College of Physicians, UK. Following residency training at Saint Vincent Hospital, MA, she worked as a hospitalist for 20 years and served as medical director of the SVH Hospitalist service for more than 10 years. In 2015, she was conferred Senior Fellow in Hospital Medicine. She has received several teaching recognitions including the SVH best teacher award and UMASS Medical School Community teacher award. She has also served in a number of key administrative positions in her capacity as Director of the Performance Improvement Committee for the Department of Medicine. She has a string of awards locally and nationally, including SVH Physician of the Year Award, ACP's Top Ten Hospitalists, the YWCA Katharine F. Erskine Award for Women in Leadership and recently the MA ACP 2020 Distinguished Service Award. She became a Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians, UK in 2018. In 2020, Dr George became a Master of the American College of Physicians, the only woman physician from central MA to receive this honor.